

- 1. People who look for a home during the Holidays are more serious buyers!
- 2. Serious buyers have fewer houses to choose from during the Holidays, and less competition means more money for you.
- 3. Since the supply of listings will dramatically increase in January, there will be less demand for your particular home! Less demand means less money for you.
- 4. Houses show better when decorated for the Holidays.
- 5. Buyers are more emotional during the Holidays, and more likely to pay your price!
- 6. Buyers have more time to look for a home during the Holidays than they do during a work week.
- 7. Some people buy before the end of the year for tax reasons.
- 8. January is traditionally the month employees begin new jobs. Since transferees cannot wait until Spring to buy, you must be on the market now to capture these buyers.
- 9. You can still be on the market, but have the option to restrict showings during the six or seven days during the Holidays.
- 10. You sell now for more money and we will provide a delayed closing or extended occupancy until early next year.
- 11. By selling now, you may have an opportunity to be a non-contingent buyer during the Spring, when many more houses are on the market for less money. This will allow you to sell high and buy low!
